Dimension 1: Non-Dominant vs. Dominant

Kelly Sample scored in the Right Side of the Non-Dominant vs. Dominant dimension.

This dimension measures the degree to which a person is driven to take charge and lead others. Right side scoring individuals tend to be ambitious and focused on influencing others. They prefer to take charge and assume a leadership role.

Positive aspects of how Kelly Sample scored:

- Confident and self-motivated
- Sets and reaches difficult goals
- Enjoys leading others
- Assertive and driven

Job-Fit Considerations – Kelly Sample would fit best into a role that:

- Provides the ability to take charge and lead
- Has the responsibility of managing a team or managing important projects/initiatives
- Involves decision making responsibilities
- Provides adequate freedom and resources to accomplish tasks quickly

Coaching/developmental areas related to how Kelly Sample scored:

- Would be most comfortable when leading others or in a position of importance
- Would be most satisfied when having decision making authority

Management considerations for leading Kelly Sample:

- Would benefit from ongoing coaching on leadership skills
- Can be given the authority to lead important projects/initiatives
- Will likely prefer to decide how and when tasks are completed
- Will not prefer to be managed or monitored closely

Interview Questions – Suggested questions to probe into this area to further assess "fit"

• Tell me about a time when you disagreed with a decision that your manager made. What was the situation, how did you handle it and what was the result?

• The ability to inspire and motivate others is an important skill in any position. Tell me about a time when you influenced others you worked with or managed to improve their performance. How did you help them and what were the results?

Dimension 3: Reactive vs. Calm

Kelly Sample scored in the Mid Right of the Reactive vs. Calm dimension.

This dimension measures the degree to which a person is calm and tolerant of stress and pressure. Right side scoring individuals are seen as even-tempered and calm in stressful situations and don't tend to take criticism personally.

Positive aspects of how Kelly Sample scored:

- Even-keeled and calm
- Stress tolerant
- Non-reactive to typical work pressure
- Able to persist and stay optimistic

Job-Fit Considerations – Kelly Sample would fit best into a role that:

- Requires being persistent
- Requires a high level of stress tolerance
- Involves work where it helps to stay calm and collected
- Is demanding and challenging

Coaching/developmental areas related to how Kelly Sample scored:

- Others may mistake calmness for a lack of enthusiasm
- May prefer to think through possible solutions before acting

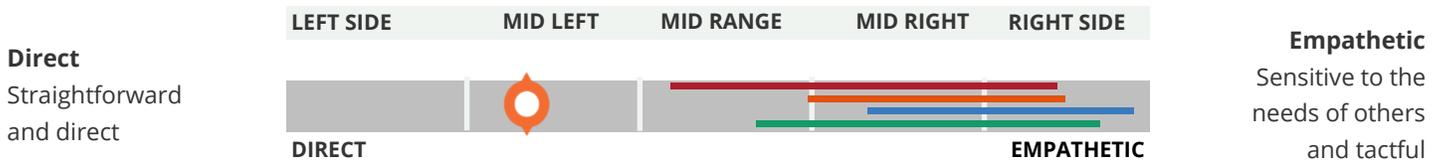

Management considerations for leading Kelly Sample:

- May not openly show enthusiasm and involvement
- May need prompting to react immediately to complex issues
- Will likely not appreciate others over-reacting to minor issues or threats
- May not display a sense of urgency

Interview Questions – Suggested questions to probe into this area to further assess "fit"

- Give me an example of a situation where you recognized that you had to take urgent action. What was the situation and what did you do?
- Tell me about a time when you were particularly overwhelmed with your responsibilities at work. What strategies did you use to deal with this pressure?

Dimension 5: Direct vs. Empathetic

This dimension measures the degree to which a person is sensitive to the feelings of others & shows empathy. Left side scoring individuals are seen as direct & are typically more interested in completing tasks than developing interpersonal relationships.

Positive aspects of how Kelly Sample scored:

- Will likely be a straightforward and frank communicator
- Focused on completing tasks
- Comfortable voicing unpopular opinions
- Comfortable handling interpersonal tension

Job-Fit Considerations – Kelly Sample would fit best into a role that:

- Allows being direct and forthright
- Requires assertiveness
- Allows an opportunity to provide constructive criticism
- Focuses on both concrete issues and people issues

Coaching/developmental areas related to how Kelly Sample scored:

- May focus on completing tasks more than people issues
- May be seen as too forthright by highly sensitive people

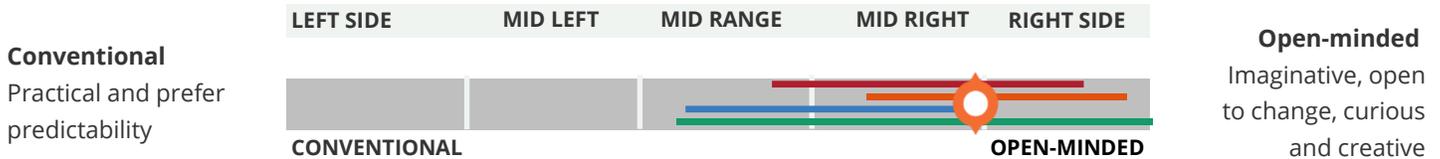

Management considerations for leading Kelly Sample:

- Should be encouraged to provide frank opinions and constructive criticism
- Will not shy away from interpersonal conflict
- Can handle negative information
- Not likely to take criticism personally

Interview Questions – Suggested questions to probe into this area to further assess "fit"

- Tell me about a time when you needed to make someone feel comfortable and at ease. How did you approach the situation?
- Sometimes customers or co-workers make unreasonable requests. Describe a time when someone made an especially unreasonable request to you. How did you handle this situation?

Dimension 7: Conventional vs. Open-minded

Kelly Sample scored in the Mid Right of the Conventional vs. Open-minded dimension.

This dimension measures the degree to which a person is curious, imaginative and innovative. High scoring individuals are creative and comfortable with change. They will likely have a strong preference for variety in their work.

Positive aspects of how Kelly Sample scored:

- Open to change and new ideas
- Able to think in 'big picture' terms
- Willing to experiment with new tools and methods
- Good at finding creative solutions to problems

Job-Fit Considerations – Kelly Sample would fit best into a role that:

- Requires finding creative solutions to problems
- Allows for innovation and developing new ideas
- Involves exposure to new ideas
- Allows some decisions to be made based on intuition

Coaching/developmental areas related to how Kelly Sample scored:

- May need a lot of variety in tasks to remain stimulated
- May over-analyze situations or problems at times

Management considerations for leading Kelly Sample:

- Should be given the opportunity to try new approaches to tasks
- Should be included in brainstorming or strategizing
- Would enjoy facing new challenges
- Will be comfortable adapting to change and taking risks

Interview Questions – Suggested questions to probe into this area to further assess "fit"

- Tell me about a time when you had to do a tedious task or set of tasks. What was the situation and what did you do?
- Give me an example of a time when you needed to be creative or innovative in order to complete a task or objective. What was the situation and how did you respond?
